

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1366 - SB 1914

March 12, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Deletes powers of arrest and seizure by societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals; requires agricultural extension agent or livestock specialist to examine any livestock alleged to have been abused prior to arrest of owner or confiscation of livestock.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes that there will be some additional examinations of livestock due to reports of abuse before arrest or confiscation can take place. However, such increase is expected to be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James A. Davenport".

James A. Davenport, Executive Director